Dear Mr. Texan:

In the summer of 1959 a poem was written by me and sent to the Chamber of Commerce at Dayton, Texas. Its essence was to simply identify the geographic location of Dayton. By a coincidence, Dayton, Texas is the birthplace of the then Governor of Texas, Price Daniel.

Seeing a chance for some free publicity, the local "bigwigs" handed the poem with my letter to the local newspaper, who in turn published it on the front page.

The Houston Press and other newspapers in Texas printed the poem and soon the leading newspapers in Boston and New England carried the story —

Their plan had worked — the story was snowballing and picking up speed from day to day.

I was phoned, long distance by the president of Dayton's Chamber of Commerce, who invited me to come to Texas — I told him I would think it over.

After a few days had gone by, the president of the Chamber of Commerce evidently was fretting not to lose this chance of free publicity, he called again, this time making several promises and a challenge to entice me to come to Texas —

I finally accepted his challenge and made the trip with my mother and my wife.

These men wanted publicity on one hand, and to humiliate me on the other. The newspapers were aware of only the "Good" part of the story — They succeeded in both —

A Rodeo was held; supposedly in my honor and an admission was charged to the public, (I did not receive a red cent).

I was asked to ride a horse in the rodeo arena, I was to come in at a gallop, holding the reins with one hand and waving the Texas hat they gave me with the other.

I did this, but no one asked the "Yank" if he could ride a horse.

The next day with the heat up in the middle nineties they coaxed and prodded me to bull-doze a steer, which I did (I have movies to prove this).

I was made to drape the confederate flag around me —

I did all the things I was asked to do good naturedly.

They did not do the things they had promised over the phone and in a letter to me. Their promises was the reason I made the trip.

I left Texas dejected and humiliated. I had to pay all the expenses of the trip from Boston to Texas.

I am a "Damn Yank" to the Texans and my poem opened a door for them to capitalize on the situation and at the same time ridicule a northerner, their feelings were vented — but how small I see those few.

Since then —

Adlai Stevenson visited Texas and he was "Spat" upon — then — our beloved President — John Fitzgerald Kennedy also a Bostonian, was brutally murdered —

I think it fitting and proper at this time, for all Decent Texans to heed the call of the John Fitzgerald Kennedy Memorial Library Fund —

Send some of those Texas dollars to Boston, so that in death, our beloved President may be honored by giving to the American people the library he so earnestly strived for.

Personally, I love Texas, and as a Texas citizen am trying to reach your ears and your hearts to a cause I know all good Texans approve.

Show Boston and the Nation that "Texas" is not a dirty word up here.

Dear Jack,

Just a note to you to keep your chin up. I am following your trial with much interest and can not believe that an injustice will be done in your case.

It is quite evident that the citizens of Dallas, those who have the say, will leave no stone unturned to try and redeem themselves at your expense.

I would say, Jack, that you should not be discouraged if the first trial should go against you. There is the appeal, which as you know will be out of Dallas and will be before different people.

Your attorney in charge, Mr. Belli, appears to me to be a very brilliant man.

In case you have wondered why I have such an interest in your case, I might say that first I approve of what you did. Second, I was aware of the atmosphere in Texas before the assassination of President Kennedy. I have no regard for the "right wing".

Their "press releases" stating that Oswald tried to kill General Walker and now Nixon is ridiculous. They are anticipating the Warren Committee Report.

Remember this, Jack, there are millions of Americans in your corner. Most people have opinions about everything, but lack the guts to back them up.

With best regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Morris M. Payne

Dear Jack your trial may be under way before you get the books I am mailing you. What a contrast in these two books.

I have thought a good many times of the song that was written in England at the time of the Nazi bombings. It came at a time the people needed a moral boost, and went some thing like this. "There'll be blue birds over the white cliffs of Dover just you wait and see."

What has happened to you could have happened in a good many cities and to many a person. If it had been a premeditated affair I would look at it differently.

I am not a Senator over here at Biverton, just a Carpenter with a sympathetic heart. Mrs Fullerton is a School Teacher we have raised five fine children.

This article is a condensation of a pamphlet also entitled "The Lesson of President Kennedy's Death" available from OUR SUNDAY VISITOR Book Department, Noll Plaza, Huntington, Indiana 46750. 10c per copy, generous discounts for bulk orders. Father Sheridan is Director of the Catholic Information Center, Los Angeles.

WHY didn't the President develop a cold that morning? Why wasn't it raining so his car's protective bubble top would be in place? Why wasn't there even some international emergency that would have kept him in the White House? Why did he have to change his route through Dallas? Why? Why was President Kennedy murdered?

Why was Lee Oswald on the loose that morning when he had been recognized by so many as having Marxist tendencies, an anti-social background, a psychoid personality and a dangerous hostility towards authority? Why wasn't he seen carrying a gun, or noticed meandering around the route of the President's motorcade?

There are, of course, simple answers to those questions, but they cannot bring back the President, nor can they even begin to explain why a man who symbolized to an almost unique degree the hopes and dreams of America should be cut down in the bloom of his manhood by an armed madman.

Viewed merely as the unfortunate act of a gun-toting maniac, President Kennedy's death would be an unrelieved tragedy. But there is something deep in the human heart that forbids us to believe ourselves to be playthings of Fate, and there is the Faith, the Faith in God and in God's Providence, that assures the believer that God's eye is upon us and His ear attentive to us in all our ways, and that there is a reason, a reason sometimes beyond our comprehension, but a merciful and good reason why He permits what may seem to us even the most meaningless horror.

National soul searching

In the atmosphere of agony, grief and frustration that followed in the wake of the President's death there began, spontaneously, a national examination of conscience. The most prominent men in the country instinctively thought of the moral breakdown that seems to be going on apace among us. They spoke openly and bluntly about the hate, dishonesty, violence and domestic infidelity that are clearly a part of contemporary America. They condemned extremism in all its forms, malicious gossip and the crude, irreverent and dangerously sensationalist character of some of the reporting in the American press.

Dear Jack:

Of course, Belli has his hands full, and a lot of guys here are for you. One thing for sure, this States attorney, Wade will be after you. After all, didn't you wreck his chances to be governor?

You'll have to face it Jack, Oswald was more important than you.... anyway here's wishing you luck. By the way, I am from your home town, west side, Kedsie and Polk, later moved to that "fine" neighborhood of Western and Harrison... and come to think of it, Belli was once going to take my son's case. I wrote him a couple of years ago from Seville Spain. Anyway, once again, let's see you make it..

Dear Mr. Bell:

I would like to give my experience as an epileptic in behalf of Mr. Rudy. This type of illness can begin at any time, in any age and due to any number of things. An injury, persecution, strain, organic disease, or mental stress can contribute to the onset.

I was treated by a Dallas psychiatrist for quite some time. My illness is under control. The patient knows what his capacity is and must limit himself. A person can do anything he wants to do as long as he is happy doing it and does not ever do. My doctor made the statement he did not know which of these factors contributed to the onset of the attacks, but the patient himself has to determine the cause, then keep that factor from causing him distress. A person can also have an attack of epilepsy without knowing it. This usually happens in or to sleep. An attack is a release of atomic like energy and can be a split-second act of which the patient is unaware,

Dear sir;

I have read much of your troubles, which has prompted me to wonder if you did not have similar trouble like I had.

When I was about 70 years old I came across two friends who had just had a fight in front of the corner drug store. A doctor some 35 or 40 ~~had~~ about 185# had just beaten a much older ex mayor, an asmetio, had him crumpled down hat and glasses off face bleeding, he up over him cursing and using the most profane language, M.F.SOB. I stood by, two passed by and tried to quiet him he shoved them aside. I didn't think of having anything to do with ^{it} until an ex policeman came in on the other side, so I thought I would go in and help him quiet the man, just before I got to him something picked me up and thrust my whole weight 180# against him with my fist in his mouth. As soon as I came to myself I would not have done so for anything, ^{didn't cost me anything.} I will never know the cause, certainly ^{two} was one of the unseen powers, that causes us to do and think all we do, the right or the wrong, the Lord or the devil, I can't think it was the devil, as there was no forethought or malice.

You have my sympathy and I hope you will come out alright here, but the most important is the FINAL JUDGEMENT.

Yours very truly,
W. H. Reid.

My dear friend Jack Ruby:

Excuse me for writing again but I saw this birthday card which I felt sure would find you and so here it is. I had a grown cat just like this when John Marquis was alive. She was like a dog when it came to Mother along beside us when I backed to the bus with John. When she left to go out on his freight train ride to Evansville Ind.

My goodness, one thing's for sure, when you are free again (look like it may be soon) everytime you see a fine cat you will no doubt think of the name Vivienne Marquis.

It is so good for you having brothers and sisters. I never had any brothers nor sisters nor children. I have no close friends and relatives except you (I hope I haven't lost your friendship) & Mama. She was born 27 June 1884. Sure think she is yet living. I do have two aunts, milder ones (Lemona, & Clara) but I am not fond of them. Papa & mama had been my world since 1941 when I lost John Marquis. So I was extremely sad at losing Papa 18 June 1962 (when he was 88 yrs 8 mos & 16 days). After funeral home near papa'sasket my "cool" aunts & other laughed & talked. I didn't feel like talking so I sat away from them & merely shook my head when they "ordered" me to take a chair closer to them. I felt I would burst out crying any moment as I sat staring at papa's face & his casket & as I thought their gay chatter out of place I left and went to the LaSalle lounge down the hall. I no longer was alone when I gave way to my heartbreak & was lost in a flood of tears. I was alone - I was hurting none of the others - when suddenly these two severe aunts like a couple comets burst in & scolded me relentlessly for giving way to crying. They told me a lot of "be brave" talk at me - when all I wanted was to sit there

my heart out - my sweet beloved papa gone - the dear person who had always been my full moral support, who had taken me part against the world and the done so much for me & never so kind. The last Sunday in March, I believe it was, in 1962 as we parted after my visit with him & blessed he cried as he said he wished I didn't have to live alone & so far away (12 miles). At that time there was a small gang of teen age rock throwers who went around breaking windows at night. I lived it without cause
- only for fun or sport, kids they called it. I had a storm window in back broken several times & finally boarded it up. Papa wrote to tell me about this. I didn't stop to other little Papa, he cared about me. He weighed the same as I do 165 lbs.
I'm never threatened anymore. I guess the rock throwers moved away or perhaps they are engaged in bigger criminal activities.
There are a lot of store robberies in the area. The robbery and the store registers & lock up. The employees & customers too in the big ice storage vault. Looks like that would give people a bad case.

I was happy to hear over my radio last Friday 6th March that you were there and that morning than just sometime.
Sometimes I can't keep back the tears as I think of what you are enduring & know that in poor consolation. I have never wished for you to be set free. Free bond means a lot.

I enclose another air mail envelope as you may not already have one handy. Write to me when you can. Please don't forget me. I would be awful downhearted if you did. I have faith in you and I care. Whatever you do, please be sure to write to me. It will be wonderful to hear over the radio that you are free, when this trial ends.

The Dallas Court sure handled that poor mother wisely too.
She sure could have created unpleasant circumstances if allowed as sport for at the trial.

I didn't intend to write anything sad, you while on trial for your precious life and under a severe strain. Your beautiful letter & your story of your life has endeared you to me & I feel that you are my close friend to me. I studied some law while in College & know the difference between legal - and medical - so I pray God William you may meet him in heaven someday not so far away, and keep you. I love you & your mother.

*This is my special prayer for you --
May God be with you all day through,
And in His goodness may He bless Your future days with happiness.*

Dear Mr. Jack Ruby,

You don't see me but I am a friend of the Stephensons, the people who have been writing to you quite often now to see how you were. My name is Bob Iruin and I am very concerned about the misfortune you're in, and I'm speaking for all my friends.

Mr. Ruby, I don't know if this letter means anything to you but I just want to write to you anyway, kind of to cheer you up if I can. Mr. Ruby I'd be very grateful to you if you would please write back to me, I would always treasure your letter, my address is:

4835 Katherina
Dearborn Heights, Michigan

My parents the Stephensons and myself wish you all the luck that can come to you.

Sincerely Yours,
Bob Iruin

Dear Mr. Ruby:

Human illnesses and emotions are often beyond our power to control, the government trials, its savage and sterile words separate us. Our own incomprehensible pain isolates, it is a deep hope mountain of agony.
This letter is a small token to keep for many days - waiting for a good word from you.

God lead you when the way seems filled With loneliness
and dread,
And send the sunshine
of His love
To light the path ahead.

Man how forgot on a boat God and what He did for the sins of the World. But Mr Ruby please don't push God aside put all your trust in God
if you not a Christian Come to God Right now this is the time you need God. Repent Right now tell God you are sorry for all the sins you have ever did ask God to forgive you and if you will just believe that God will do just what He say then the weight in all ready done just believe just trust in God
He is a God of love peace joy Happiness all the things that God give man. Don't give up and what give if He can't unless He has the love of God in His Heart Mr Ruby: pray tell God what you want and He is a kind God for a tried Him one day
when I was a lost sinner in trouble
I called on God to Come

Dear Jack:

I hope by now you have received my letter. I was about to mail it Thursday morning on my way to work, but, the day before I suffered a strained back, and although it didn't seem too painful at the time, the next morning when I started to move around it was all I could to walk a short distance. I wasn't very bad when I sat still but I suddenly realized that I could not work on the floor a whole day. I decided to call my boss and let her know that her most valuable salesgirl (that's me) was indisposed, and what do you know she didn't seem upset at all by my inconvenience and apparently she believed my story. I guess she thought I was telling the truth - and I was. I told brother "Hy" about it and he said "it was due to old age." Some people don't seem to care about my feelings at all. For that unkind remark when I make soup I'll throw ashes in it - that'll teach him. I have been back to work in fact I'll only stayed home one day as I said earlier "how could they manage without a good worker like myself?" Things are just about the same here since we all work to don't have to much time to give this place the attention it needs. This will have to do for now - hope to write again soon.

LOVE ANN

Dear Mr. Lee

I am praying every day for your recovery and I sincerely believe you should be acquitted. As far as I'm concerned, I've already been thanked for being that voice. Just remember you mustn't let them say anything to be done. I'm just thankful that it's all over and still enough left in the best hearted man of ours to pull out when a terrible thing like this assassination takes place.

Hope this shows you a little to know that many people are on your side of this thing.

Much love always. Take care and try not to let this get you too depressed. Can only imagine how you feel at this point.

Sincerely,

To Jack Rubenstein, known as Jack Ruby, with hopes that he will soon be appreciated with the respect due a public-spirited citizen:

A TRIBUTE TO AN A-1 CITIZEN
LISTEN, DALLAS, TEXAS, TO AN ANGUISHED NATION'S CRY, LISTEN, ALSO, ANYONE, WHO'D FLAUNT THE LORD ON HIGH,
LISTEN, COMMUNISTIC SCUM,
WE'LL GET YOU YET, AND ON THE RUN.
WE HAD SETTLED ALL OUR DIFFERENCES RIGHT WITHIN THE POLLS, AND WHEN ANARCHY SHOWED ITS UGLY HAND,
AN AVENGING ANGEL TOOK OUR STAND.
AN ANARCHIST DIED, 'T WAS ALL HE DESERVED.
AS SURELY AS A CHURCH BELL TOLLS,
AS SURELY AS A DRUMMER ROLLS.
"AS YE LIVE BY THE SWORD, YE DIE BY THE SWORD".
SO AN ANARCHIST DIED,
JUSTICE WAS SERVED.

PLEASE NOTE THAT I MENTIONED ANARCHY, WHICH SHOULD HELP AS IT IS A LEGAL FACT THAT WHEN A PRESIDENT OR RULER, CHOSEN OR ACCEPTED BY THE PEOPLE IS ASSASSINATED, THE COUNTRY IS TEMPORARILY IN A STATE OF ANARCHY, WHICH IS CERTAINLY ONE OF THE WORST CRIMES, AND AS MANY AMERICAN CITIZENS HAVE PUBLICLY STATED, INCLUDING IN WRITING IN "VOICE OF THE PEOPLE", DAILY NEWS, NEW YORK CITY, "JACK RUBY DID WHAT ANY AMERICAN WOULD DO IF HE HAD THE CHANCE".

With hopes that patriots everywhere will rally to your defense,

An American citizen, a lady.
